

EIS Facts

Environmental Impact Statement

Federal Study - Environmental Impact Statement for a proposed replacement runway and terminal expansion at Port Columbus International Airport

Purpose of EIS - To disclose the significant environmental impacts of the Proposed Action and the prudent and feasible alternatives

Federal Action - FAA approval and possible funding of proposed replacement runway and terminal expansion, associated development, and associated air traffic changes

Lead Federal Agency - Federal Aviation Administration

Project Sponsor - Columbus Regional Airport Authority

EIS Required By - National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA)

Purpose of Workshop/Hearing - Provide the public with an opportunity to learn about the Proposed Action, the NEPA/EIS process and to provide formal input on the Draft EIS

